THE GLENWOOD

A Summer and Winter Resort for Pleasure and Health.

Riverside, San Bernardino County, Cal.

THE GLENWOOD is universally recognized as one of the best and most attractive hotels in the State. It occupies an entire block of two and one-half acres, centrally located, with pleasant surroundings in the way of fruit and ornamental trees, flowers and shrubbery. Around the building, on both floors, are broad balconies, forming fine promenades, aggregating a quarter of a mile in length, part of which are encased with glass and trellised with vines. The sunlight reaches every room, and they are all easy of access from broad halls and balcony. Baths and closets, electric bells, and all the modern improvements to be found in a first-class hotel. Open grates and stoves afford opportunity for fires when desired. Parlors, reading room, office and dining room all on first floor, spacious, sunny and convenient.

.....OF.....

Water Analysis.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 18, 1882.

For Mr. Victor Beaudry, Los Angeles:

I have carefully analyzed the sample of water —marked as under—and find the following to be the proportions in every 100 parts:

[Mark of sample, Los Angeles.]

Solid residue, 29.16 grains per United States gallon.

Chlorine, 2.39 grains per United States gallon.

Ammonia (free and combined), .085 milligram per litre.

Albuminoid ammonia, .12 milligram per litre.

The water does not indicate the presence of any injurious ingredient in abnormal quantities, and is a good quality of water for dietetic purposes. It is free from any sewage contamination.

Respectfully submitted,
THOMAS PRICE, M. D.

NOTICE.

To whom it may concern:

I take pleasure to lay before the public the above certificate of analysis of the water from the

LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES.
(County Official Paper.)

By YARNELL, CAYSTILE, MATHES & OTIS.
Office No. 9 Temple Street.

Publishers' Announcements.

THE LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES has a regular, permanent, bona-fide circulation very much larger than that of any other daily paper published in Los Angeles, and approximating that of all the other daily papers here added together. This claim we are prepared to substantiate.

FOR ADVERTISING the TIMES has its own equitable scale of prices, based on circulation, not on the prices charged by or paid to other papers.

THE TIMES can be found at the news-stands of the Palace and Occidental Hotels and Russ House, San Francisco.

THE TIMES OFFICE is connected with the telephone system of this city, and those desiring to advertise in or subscribe for this paper can do so by this means.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.—The proprietors of the TIMES will pay a reward of $10 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of any person stealing the TIMES from the doors of of its subscribers.

CORRESPONDENCE on live topics solicited from all quarters. Local affairs and news given the preference. Correspondents are asked to cultivate accuracy, brevity, clearness, conciseness and timeliness; to use one side of the sheet only, to write plainly, and to send real name. Unless so verified, contributions will receive no attention.

PRINTING.—There is nothing in the printing line which the TIMES-MIRROR Printing, Binding and Ruling House is not prepared to execute in a manner equal to that of any office in the State. Satisfaction guaranteed.

BOOK-BINDING.—Books, magazines and pamphlets bound in Turkish leather, Morocco, cloth, sheepskin, or in any style desired at the TIMES-MIRROR Bindery. Our work is guaranteed to be equal to that done in San Francisco.

HIGH LICENSE.

The movement for high license goes steadily on in different parts of the country. In Aurora, Ill., the city council has adopted a very stringent ordinance on the subject. Its principal provisions, briefly stated, are:

Retail liquor license was fixed at $500 per year.

Wholesale liquor license was placed at $500, an increase of $400 over last year.

For selling bottled beer or ale, in not less quantity than six bottles, the license was fixed at $500.

Druggist's license for selling liquor for medical, mechanical or sacramental purposes was fixed at $50. No license was ever charged before in that place.

Billiard, pool and pigeon-hole tables and pin-alleys were placed at $25 each, and the hour to close fixed at 10:30 P. M. Also prohibiting minors from frequenting such places.

For willful violation of sections relating to sale of liquor, for first offense the mayor or council may revoke a license, and for second offense they shall revoke it.

Saloons can be kept open from 6 A. M. to 10:30 P. M., except on Sundays and election days.

No restaurant or eating-house shall be allowed to be connected with saloon by doors, windows, etc., and no painted or frosted windows or screens will be allowed in front of any saloon.

Imposes a fine of from $10 to $200 for violation of this ordinance.

The sentiment underlying this movement for high license is unmistakable. It means that good citizens of various classes, including not alone temperance men, but temperate men and drinking men as well, and even liquor dealers, recognize the fact that the saloon business is not a legitimate and useful industry, to be encouraged by public approval and legal protection, but an illegitimate pursuit, injurious to society, and deserving to be discouraged by legislation, whether in the form of a heavy tax or of absolute prohibition. The principle upon which all prohibitory legislation is based is that the man who prosecutes a business which is a detriment instead of a good to the country must either be stopped short in his career or "discouraged" in his progress in the work of killing off his fellow-citizens.

O'DYNAMITE ROSSA.

Michael Davitt, we believe, is accounted one of the most patriotic of the Irish leaders, as he certainly is one of the most sensible of them. He pronounces the dynamite policy "insane, idiotic, criminal," and yet, says the Kansas City Journal, "the New York saloon keeper, O'Donovan Rossa continues to have followers in this country who send him large sums of money to purchase dynamite, and hire men to blow up the ships and public buildings of England. The scalawag Rossa has kindly figured out the cost of burning London at £17,251, 0s., 10d. He requires £12,000 to pay the passage money over and back of '1000 evicted Irishmen,' and £5000 is required for contingent money—that is for the drinks, probably. Rooms would be taken at 1000 London hotels for one night at 5 shillings each, £250, and 1000 boxes of matches would be required at £1, 10d. The project would be to light 1000 beds. Rossa's plan of burning London by arithmetic fails to take into account that the 1000 beds in the 1000 hotels may be put out by 1000 porters, watchmen and firemen, and the 1000 'evicted Irishmen' may find difficulty in carrying out the direction to 'fly after the beds are lit,' and in the present state of English feeling would be quite likely to festoon 1000 lamp posts within twenty-four hours. Rossa is still hauling in money from the credulous Irish in this country, which he uses as he pleases."

The Stockton Mail adverts to the beneficial results which have come to Los Angeles and some other sections of California by a judicious use of printers' ink and the gift of gab in elevating the horn of the country and telling of its good points; and it thinks the same policy has not been vigorously pursued in San Joaquin, or it would enjoy just as enviable a reputation as Los Angeles. Without thinking it necessary now to take issue on this point, we desire simply to make the point that it is the part of wisdom for each section to effectively bring out its peculiar advantages and excellences, whatever they may be. One section is good for certain classes of productions, another section is good for other classes: all have their advantages and disadvantages, and each can claim some peculiar excellence.

There has been held a Democratic conclave in Chicago. The subject of consideration was the next Presidency, and it is given out that the conclavers pitched upon sly Sammy Tilden as the very best man to lead the party through the quicksands of Protection and Free Trade to the dry land of victory on the other side of the political Jordan. The general judgment of the brethren was that if any man in the party can carry Free Trade water on one shoulder and Protection water on the other shoulder, that man is sly Sammy.

Here is another of Mr. George Hearst's little jokes in the Examiner:

There is a town in Peru in which the mule ought to feel at home. It is named Iquique.

This is degrading the mule to a level with the Chinaman, who would pronounce the leg action in the same way.

The San Francisco Exchange has been exhausting the fountains of its sarcasm and derision upon the Examiner's first-column alleged jokes, the productions of the able editor himself. Mr. George Hearst does them with his own good right arm. We await with breathless interest to see the scornful Exchange buck against the following capricious effort of its kid-like and frisky contemporary:

A goat was introduced as evidence in a Denver court recently. They probably wanted to use him in rebuttal.

It is the ramification through its columns of whole flocks of editorial paragraphs similar to the above that gives to the Examiner its character forgrace and euphony.

The Democratic idea: No duty ought to be imposed on any article above the lowest rate which will yield the largest amount of revenue.—[San Francisco Examiner.

Will you please furnish the plans and specifications upon which that joke was built? Or was it constructed in dead earnest?

It is nearly time for General Crook to do a little fighting.—[San Francisco Examiner.

There is no occasion for it—the gallant newspapers are gobbling all the gore.

Mr. Blaine, in the preface of his book, asserts that in the twenty years of Congress between the inauguration of Lincoln in 1861 and the inauguration of Garfield in 1881 were the most important in the history of the nation. It is a safe assertion.

A Miss Housa is creating a great deal of excitement in the East by repeatedly asserting that she has visited both heaven and hell. This is equivalent to saying that she has been in Los Angeles and Texas.

The Brooklyn Eagle says that the Abou Ben Ahdem of American society passed away when Peter Cooper died.—[San Francisco Examiner.

But Abou Ben Butler (may his tribe decrease!) is left.

That part of the Sahara Desert which M. De Lesseps proposes to convert into an inland sea is said to be two hundred times larger than the Bay of San Francisco.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

A young man who married his landlady's daughter at Fort Worth, Texas, had his honeymoon rudely disturbed. Having neglected suitable financial arrangements with the head of the establishment, he received at the end of a week, a bill for twice the amount which he had previously paid. His view of the matter was entirely different. He expected to be boarded free, and so refused to settle. On returning from a theater with his bride he found the doors locked, and their wardrobe and other effects piled on the sidewalk.

When the Chinese Ambassador attends a ball in France he wonders and comments in his diary as follows: "At about 11 o'clock we retired to a ball room, where I watched men and women skipping and gamboling for a long while. The women held flowers in their hands. Their caps and dresses were of several colors, the latter folded into many pleats behind, having the appearance of a wasp's nest, and ends in a train which drags on the ground for five or six feet behind them."

This original composition was produced by a promising youth of Virginia. The subject was "Enterprise." "Enterprise is a good thing. Columbus enterprised America. If Columbus hadn't done it we should be nowhere, for nobody knew anything about America but the Indians, and they wouldn't tell."

RAKING HAY.

'Twas out in the bright, warm sunshine
On a Summer's August day,
The young folks laughed and chatted
As they raked the new-mown hay.
Their hearts were so full of mischief
And their lives so free from care,
Their laughter so joyous and merry
Rang out on the noonday air.

There were groups all scattered about on the fields,
With their bright-eyed, happy girls,
With their broad-brimmed hatsled under their chins,
Their faces near hid by their curls.
Afar in the meadow came the hum of a bee;
In the orchard a bird built her nest;
We stopped in our toil to watch her awhile,
And leaned on our rakes to rest.

And down in the fields near a murmuring stream
Stood the cows in the shade of the trees,
And butterflies flitted from bough to bough
As their branches were stirred by the breeze.
'Twas there we enjoyed our every day lunch
In the cool on a hot Summer's day;
Then went back to work with lighter hearts
Without our lovers to rake the hay.

How well I remembered just as the sun set,
And raking was done for the day,
How some one did linger behind all the rest
Just to tell what he wanted to say.
Of a full, loving heart and a pair of strong hands
That were willing to shield me through life,
And would do all they could to lighten the trials
That might fall to the lot of a wife."

Of the dark, wistful eyes that looked deep into mine,
As if trying their answer to guess,
And the bright, manly face that beamed with delight
As I blushingly answered him "Yes."
And the kiss that he stole as we crossed o'er the stream
By the willows that hid us from sight,
And the sweet happy dreams for the future I built
As I laid on my pillow that night.

How plain I can see them, the young, merry group,
On the porch in the light of the moon,
While father and mother were planning the time
For Tom and I to be married in June,
I see the white cottage he built near the hill,
With its shade trees and green, grassy slope,
Where we all played our games when the sun went down,
Laughed and jumped while the boys turned the rope.

How things have all changed in ten long years!
The old farm-house at home has been sold,
And many beside the loved ones are laid
In the dark grave so silent and cold.
And the old group I know has been sadly broken up,
And have scattered since I came away,
And there are none left but Tom and myself of the one
Of the number that used to rake hay.

And to-day as I sat so weary alone,
With a heavy, sad, yearning heart,
I read the old letters poor Tom wrote to me
Before we had wander'd apart.
Before I had left the old farm-house and friends
For a city life brilliant and gay,
They were sweet when my heart was content with the love
I won on that time raking hay.

And I wonder so oft in my gay wedded life
If by him I am ever forgot,
And who lives in the cottage that should have been mine
And if Tom had got married or not.
I must hide all all these tears—there's a step on the stair,
And the children have ended their play.
Oh Tom! I'd give all to turn back to the time
You and I in the fields raked hay.
—[Mrs. E. A. Stubbs in Del Norte Record.

BRISBIN ON BOVINES.

A Night Run of Cattle on the Drive.

Gen. Brisbin, writing in the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, says: Last fall a large herd of big steers for market were being driven across the country from Muscleshell to Billings, on the Northern Pacific Railroad, where they were to be shipped on the cars for Chicago. There were about 2000 head, I should judge, the property of a Mr. De Hass, a very young man. One evening a military camp had been made just ahead of the cattle, and on the same side of the creek with them, up which the herd was being driven. A storm was coming up and the cattle exhibited some signs of uneasiness. Mr. De Hass sent word to the military officer that he had better get his men, wagons and animals on the opposite side of the creek and out of the way, as he feared there was going to be a "night run." The herders were instructed to keep their horses saddled and be ready to mount at a moment's notice. The cattle were very uneasy, getting up, lying down again, and shifting about as if uncomfortable. At last, about midnight there came a sharp flash of lightning, followed by a heavy peal of thunder, and in an instant the whole herd was upon their feet. "Mount and whip out," cried De Hass, and the herder who was at the head of the column drove a few of the leading steers in the direction they were to go. All the others followed, and the herd was soon in full flight. The herders made no effort to check or control them further than to keep them going straight; they rode at the head of the column, one on each side of them, swung to the right or left, and keeping the trail, bluff and precipices were avoided and the open flat ground courted. The run lasted about two hours, when a gorge was being neared, in which the cattle would crowd and break their limbs. They were now quite tired, and the herders determined to exert their authority and stop the run. The head of the column was bent out upon the prairie and circled round and round until the cattle became tied up in a huge ball and could not move at all. In this way they were obliged to stand until morning, the herders riding round and round them, and keeping them completely tied up. At daylight they were allowed to "open out." First the outer edge scattered, then layer after layer, until the huge pile of beef was once more a herd grazing as quietly as if nothing had happened.

San Francisco Produce Market.

Revised Daily for the Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.

FLOUR—Trade continues good. We quote as follows: Best city Extra, $5.65@6.00; Medium grades, $4.50@5.25; Shipping Superfine, $4@4.25 ₱ bbl.

WHEAT—The market is still firmer to-day. Exporters are more willing to pay $1 77½ for No. 1 quality, while $1 80 is obtained for choice parcels. Millers have to give an advance on this latter rate for anything specially desirable. Strictly prime lots of milling are held at $1 82½, without any reported sales.

BARLEY—There is very little coming forward, and stock in warehouse is anything but large. Consequently the spot situation presents a rather strong tone and occasions a better feeling in regard to fu ure business. Brewing is held at $1 37½@1 39. Trading to-day was wholly speculative, and a very good record was made.

CORN—Quiet. Quotable at $1 55@1 65 ₱ ctl for California Yellow. Nebraska is offered in lots to suit at $1 25 ₱ ctl.

HAY—Moderate purchases are being made for shipment to British Columbia. We quote: Alfalfa, $13@15; Wheat, $16 00@18 00; Wild Oat, $16@18; Mixed, $13@16 ₱ ton.

POTATOES—Supplies are free. Wharf rates: River Red, 50@65c; Early Rose, 50@ 60c; Petaluma and Tomales, 90c@1 05; Humboldt, $1@1 12½; New, 1@2½c ₱ lb.

BEANS—Buyers are ready to take liberal supplies of good southern coast White at our figures. Bayos, $5 00@5 25; Butter, $3 25@3 50 for small and $3 50@3 75 for large; Lima, $3 75@4 12½; Pea, $3 75 @4 00; Pink, $4 50@5 00; Red, $4 50@5; Small White, $3 75@3 90; Large White, $3 | 25@3 50 ₱ ctl.

FRUIT—Two small boxes of Cherries arrived to-day, selling at 50c ₱ lb. Strawberries were in good demand, and being of good quality sold well at a small advance on yesterday's figures. Oranges are in good supply. Apples, 25@50c ₱ box for common and $1@1 50 for good to choice, and $2 ₱ box for extra quality; Lemons, $5@6 00 ₱ box for Sicily; California Lemons, 75@$1 50 ₱ box; Limes, $7@7 50 ₱ box for Mexican; Tamarinds, 12@13c ₱ lb; California Oranges, $1 00@1 50 for common and $2 00@3 00 ₱ box for good to choice; Pineapples, $6@8 ₱ dozen; Western Cranberries are offering at $15@17 ₱ bbl. Strawberries, $10@12 ₱ chest for Monarch and $13@20 ₱ chest for the Longworth variety.

BEESWAX—Quotable at 30@32c ₱ lb.

BUTTER—The situation is unchanged. Stock is ample, trade is good and prices are easy. We quote job lots as follows: Fancy, 26c ₱ lb; choice, 24@25c; fair to good, 18@23c; inferior lots from country stores, 15@17c; choice firkin, old, 20@22½c; do new, 22@25c; ordinary do, 17@19c; pickled roll, old 20@22½c; new, 24@26c; Eastern, 17@20c ₱ lb.

EGGS—Are quite scarce, and the market is somewhat excited. Business is being done on no established basis, and there is much irregularity in asking rates the range being from 27½ to 30c ₱ doz. We hear of sales at the lower, but none at the higher figures.

POULTRY—Steady and unchanged. We quote for lots: Live Turkeys, gobblers, 21@22c; Hens, 21@22c; dressed do, 22@23c ₱ lb; Roosters, $6 50@7 00 for old and $5.50@11 00 for young; Hens, $7,00@8.00; Broilers, $4.00@ $7.50, according to size; Ducks, $9@10 50 per dozen; Geese, $2 25@2 50, and Goslings, $3@3 50 per pair.

MAGNETISM—The new source of health! Dr. Edwin Robbins, the celebrated Australian Electric and Magnetic Healer, respectfully informs the public that he has opened an office in the city of Los Angeles. Dr. Robbins discards the use of surgery, drugs, minerals and all other medicines in his treatment, and relies solely on the power of magnetism. An experience of several years in the Australian colonies, San Francisco, Salt Lake City and Denver, in which places he has treated successfully thousands of persons, enables him to assert, with confidence that he can cure diseases that have defied the application of medical science. Magnetism is the life principle within us. The air we breathe is charged with it. It is the vital force emanating from all persons and that which connects the soul with the body. In support of this theory he cures acute pains instantly, local pains in a few days, and builds up the most shattered constitution in a short time. Dr. Robbins, who has a world-wide reputation for his extraordinary cures of all difficult and complicated diseases, possesses a power to relieve and cure all kinds of disease. Dr. Robbins diagnoses disease free of charge without explanation from the patient. If you wish references consult the patients now undergoing treatment. Office hours 9 A. M. to 5 P. There will be no service held at the Congregational Church Sunday morning, on account of the opening of the new Presbyterian Church.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Col. G. Wiley Wells and wife return home from San Francisco by this morning's train.

Mr. Chas. Patterson, a capitalist of Denver, Colorado, is stopping at the Cosmopolitan.

Mr. Chas Halleck, a retired lumberman of Denver, Colorado, arrived in this city on Thursday, in search of a good climate.

Mr. E. Danforth, proprietor of the Broadway U. S. Bonded Warehouse, San Francisco, is spending a few days in Los Angeles.

Scipio Craig, the inventor of Southern California Secession, went to San Bernardino yesterday, presumably to stirup our neighbors in a States-rights way.

Mr. Charles J. Adams, who is connected with the old established banking house of Richardson, Hill & Co., Boston, is visiting Los Angeles and vicinity for a few days.

Judge Austin Brooks and wife of Denver, who came out here in January, return to Denver in a few days to dispose of their property there and will return here to reside. They expect to be back inside of thirty days.

Col. Goulding, Grand Lecturer, and Mrs. M. E. Richardson, State Superintendent of the Band of Hope, will pay a fraternal visit to Merrill Lodge of Good Templars in this city, this evening, and will be pleased to meet all members of the Lodge.

A Neighbor's Opinion.

The TIMES mentioned the fact of the numerous gamblers of the city being let loose to prey upon the unwary at the Park during the races at the time, and now comes the Ventura Free Press, which expresses the sentiment of visitors from that place, and those from other places thought the same thing, though they may not have expressed it so publicly. The Free Press says:

At Los Angeles, the other day, Gries & Hill's little mare, Dotty Dimple, had small trouble in getting away with the race in which she was entered. Wild Idler was sick, and had to be withdrawn from his race. Visitors from Ventura say that the track was a disgraceful scene. All sorts of thieving games were allowed to be opened, at $40 per day license, and between the thieving gamblers and their aids, the cappers, it was hardly safe for a man to let it be known that he had a $5-piece. We guess Venturans won't take horses there any more, nor go themselves.

There is thought in the above item for the Directors of the Park. If the place is to become popular, such disgraceful scenes as were allowed there for a few days last week must be prevented or else the Park will be deserted.

Ladies' Bazar of Nations.

The results of the late carnival for the benefit of the Congregational church were as follows: From the various booths, $525.50; receipts at the door, $557.45; lunches, $214.70; ice cream, $228.75; total receipts, $1626.40.

The expenses come to a total of $375, leaving the net receipts $1251.40.

This does not represent the total receipts, some reports not being in, nor does it include lots donated or monies on hand before the bazaar. The Ladies' Society will be able to contribute a total of $2000 to the new church.

MRS. A. J. WELLS, Treasurer.

Still They Come.

A physician from Illinois arrived in Los Angeles last Tuesday, and is looking about for an office situation. Appearances indicate by the already long list of "medicine men" in this city that some of the newcomers would naturally be obliged to bring along with them an excursion or two of invalids in order to successfully start in the business of their profession. A lawyer from the same State also arrived here the same day, and has secured an office, and will probably very soon "hang out his shingle" with big letters of gold. And still they come.

Quarterly Meeting at Asbury Chapel

The second quarterly meeting of Asbury M. E. Church, East Los Angeles, will be held this evening and to-morrow. The services will be as follows: At 7:30 this evening, preaching; love feast at 10 Sunday morning; preaching at 11 by Presiding Elder Rev. Chas. Shelling, followed by the administration of the sacrament. In the evening at 7:00, preaching by the pastor.

The Last Day.

To-day, Saturday, is the last day in which persons or firms will be admitted to membership in the Board of Trade at the charter rate of $10. On and after Monday the fee will be $50. Every business man who consults his own interest will hand in his name to the Secretary to-day before 4 o'clock P. M. The advantages have already been dwelt upon in these columns.

DAMAGE TO GRAIN.

The Storm Which Visited us Last Week.

Reports from the country south and east of this city are to the effect that a vast deal of damage was done by the recent wind-storm to the grainfields in those sections. Grain which stood a foot and more in height is completely wilted, and much is entirely destroyed. There are evidences that frost has had something to do with the condition of the grain, as much of it as it stands may be crushed in the hand to an impalpable powder. The rain of Thursday night bid fair to revive such of the grain as was not too much damaged, but another wind succeeded yesterday, and will counteract that influence. The fruit, at least, has not been injured to any extent. The storm which did the damage occurred last week Thursday, and was the most severe which has visited this vicinity since the establishment of the signal station here in 1876. While Los Angeles county has suffered to some extent, as above noted, and in the blowing down of a few barns and outbuildings which were insecurely built, other localities suffered much more severely. The Tucson Citizen, of the 16th, says of it:

"The terrible atmospheric disturbance, with its attendant clouds of dust and sand, which has prevailed for the last five days, has not been confined to this locality. It has prevailed throughout Southern California, Arizona and New Mexico. A gentleman coming by Friday's train to Tucson, says that when San Gorgonio Pass was reached heavy sand and dust clouds could be observed both toward the coast and on the Colorado desert. On the desert it occasionally became necessary for the trainmen to use shovels to clear the drifting sand from the track to allow the passage of the cars. To the east, in the San Simon valley, and at other points, the same disturbance has been reported."

The storm extended along the entire Pacific coast, and at Victoria, B. C., four ships out of six lying at anchor there were blown ashore.

VALUABLE TIMBERS.

The Useful Woods of Southern California.

Messrs. Widney Bros., of this city, during the past two years have been utilizing the mountain and valley native woods of Southern California, principally in the manufacture of canes, and have at present a most extensive and unique collection. It is remarkable what a large variety of useful and ornamental woods exists in this section, and Eastern visitors are invariably charmed with the many fanciful articles manufactured from them. Of what may be called our domestic trees—the orange, lemon, lime and pomegranate—very ornamental canes are made, the orange being particularly valuable. The palm wood also makes a very smooth and beautiful cane, but, above all, the native mountain woods are the most highly prized as souvenirs of California, such as the mountain mahogany, California rosewood, manzanita, dwarf oak, iron wood and wild walnut. A native mountain tree called brown wood is susceptible of the highest polish, and no skillful veneering of the cabinet maker can equal the smooth, glossy shine which can be brought out on this wood by proper treatment. Another cane on exhibition is made from agua fresca, a weed so named by the Spanish because its presence in the dry hot canyons of this State always indicates that an abundance of water can be obtained by digging a reasonable depth. The Mojave desert furnishes a unique and curious wood from the yucca or desert palm, which is also worked into canes. It almost resembles a honey-comb, so perforated with tiny openings is it, and while light, it makes a very serviceable assistant in walking. The chemise wood, a native of the foothills, is a popular ornamental wood worked into many serviceable articles. The trade in ornamental woods, both native and cultivated, in Southern California, is yet in its infancy, and the manufacture of the beautiful articles now on exhibition requires both patience and considerable expenditure. In time, however, the ornamental woods of Southern California so well adapted to the æsthetic tastes of the present age, will receive the attention they so justly deserve.

CELIS'S FUNERAL.

A Large Crowd—The Order of Exercises.

The funeral of Adolfo Celis occurred yesterday afternoon. The body was taken from the undertaker's to Confidence Engine House No. 2 at 12 M., and there lay in state until the hour for the funeral, 2 o'clock, and was viewed by a large crowd of persons, a constant throng pouring in and out of the engine house. At 2 o'clock the line of march was formed and the body was transferred to the Church of Our Lady of Angels, on the Plaza, where Father Peter held religious services over the remains, and they were then taken to their last resting place in the Catholic Cemetery, in the rear of the Southern Pacific Railroad depot. The procession was composed of police, firemen and friends in carriages, in the following order: A cordon of police, consisting of officers Roley, Froelich, Maxey, McMahon, Reynolds and Fletcher; City Band, of fourteen pieces; Chief Engineer Walter S. Moore, with ex-Chiefs E. Miles and J. Kuhrts; Thirty-Eights Engine Company, with forty-one members; Park Hose Company, eleven members; Vigilance Hook and Ladder Company, eleven members; Confidence Engine Company No. 2, thirty-six members; hearse, attended by pall-bearers as follows: From the Sheriff's office, Geo. E. Gard and Geo. P. McLain; from the police force, Officers J. A. Willing and John Horner; from the Thirty-Eights, William Potts and Frank Doyle; from Park Hose, Charles Chick; from the Hook and Ladder Company, Fernandez Victoria; from Confidence Company, John C. McMenomy and M. K. Barretto. Then followed the carriages, the whole forming a line which reached almost the entire distance from the church to the engine house.

THE LAS BOLSAS CASE.

Judge Sawyer Decides that the U. S. Court has no Jurisdiction.

The San Francisco Bulletin of the 19th inst. states that the ejectment suit brought in the U. S. Circuit Court to evict about one hundred settlers from disputed territory in the Las Bolsas Rancho, mention of which was made in these columns a few days since, was terminated by Judge Sawyer dismissing the action, he holding that the U. S. Conrt had no jurisdiction. Col. G. Wiley Wells of the firm of Brunson & Wells, represented the settlers at the trial. This decision of the Court, following that of the Secretary of the Interior which was recently noticed, gives the settlers a decided advantage, leaving them in possession of the territory claimed, which embraces about thirteen thousand acres of very valuable land.

In addition to the above the Santa Ana Herald of this week states that the decision of the General Land Office makes Newport Bay and inlet the eastern boundary. The western boundary follows Mindo's line from Las Posas to a point where the line intersects with the Santa Ana river as it now runs from that point to the sea. The river forms the remaining part of the western boundary. The litigation in regard to these lands has been going on now for ten years, and the settlers have been subjected to almost continual persecution by the Land Company.

Gray, the Defaulter.

Captain Lees and Dan Coffey, of the San Francisco police force, passed through Los Angeles Thursday evening, having in charge the defaulting ex-Secretary of the Harbor Commission, W. H. Gray, bringing him from Guaymas, where he was captured, to San Francisco for trial. How Gray escaped from San Francisco has been a conundrum unsolved by the police and detectives of the metropolis. A gentleman in San Francisco at the time told a detective that the way to find him would be to watch every good-sized box or barrel shipped for Arizona by the S. P. R. R. It is more than likely the gentleman was right, and that if a watch had been placed upon certain packages and freight cars rich developments would have resulted. Gray says that he left the city on a freight car, and this partially corroborates the surmise.

A Demand for Hospitality.

Every day word is being received of additional parties who expect to attend the State Sunday School Association meeting beginning next Tuesday evening. Those who have canvassed the matter estimate that five hundred persons will be in attendance and there will be a demand upon the hospitality of everybody. Let Los Angeles show that her people have a full share of that excellent quality.

Enlarging the Catholic College.

The contract for enlarging and improvement of the Catholic College, on Sixth street, which contemplates the building of two wings each 40x80 feet was yesterday let to Mr. C. Kavanagh, who has lately been successful in a number of contracts and has given good satisfaction. Work is to be begun on Monday next.

ANAHEIM.

The Rain and the Crops—The Rush to the Ostrich Farm.

Correspondence of THE TIMES.]

ANAHEIM, April 20.—A fine rain commenced falling here last night at 8 o'clock, with favorable indications. The rain continued until 9:30 when a strong wester set in, driving the clouds back. This morning it is still blowing stiffly.

The vineyards are all well advanced now, and well hung with bunches. Some of our vineyardists fear a frost to-night or to-morrow night, although rather late for such a visitation. A frost at this time would do a great amount of damage to vines not protected by smoking.

Most of our sheep men are through shearing, and shipments of wool have already begun. There were shipped this week one car-load, 14,165 pounds, and smaller lots making a total of 32,725 pounds.

The total exports for the month of March footed 878,406 pounds, and the imports for the same period 599,862 pounds, a total freight movement of nearly a million and a half.

The celebrated Norman imported stallion "Actor" has been purchased by a company composed of persons living in the vicinity, for $1500. Actor is a six-year old grey, stands 16½ hands high, and weighs 1815 pounds. He is kept at the stable of N. H. Mitchell, who is one of the owners. This is an enterprise which will be appreciated by all those desiring to raise fine stock horses.

I did not state last week that the contract price for building the new German church included the furnishing of all the stock and material required, and also painting with two coats. Work was begun on the building Monday, and it is being pushed forward. The size of the church is 26x42.

Four carloads of wine, weighing 87,930 pounds, and one car of hay, weighing 20,470 pounds, were shipped from the depot during the past week.

The total exports amounted to 225,097 pounds. The indications are that the freight movement this month will be heavier than for a long time past.

Although it is stated that the orange market is very much demoralized, shipments of the fruit continue heavy. During the week there were shipped 830 boxes, weighing 66,230 pounds. The late frost injured a considerable quantity of the fruit and the price brought is low. The principal injury was done to trees outside of town.

The material of the Spanish Church building which was commenced some time ago off Center street, has been taken down and handed to a lot back of the Presbyterian church, lately purchased by Rev. Roberts, as a more suitable location. The new building will be commenced as soon as possible.

Sherman's circus is billed here for the 30th, and a picnic in the beautiful Santiago grove on May Day is also announced. The attendance at the picnic will be very large.

Visitors continue to pour in at the ostrich farm in large numbers, especially on Sunday. The superintendent, Mr. Sketchley, is very much annoyed by the rudeness of many who drive over the plowed land, hitch their horses to the corrals, and bring their dogs with them when notice has been repeatedly given that the birds are very much afraid of the canines, and liable to be thrown in a panic at the sight of one. Should the nuisances be continued it is probable the farm will be closed entirely to visitors. It is a pity some people have so little sense of decency and propriety.

The telephone line has been extended to Santa Ana and Orange, and is now in good working order.

The hotel arrivals last week at one of our hotels numbered sixty-six.

The following were elected Directors of the Anaheim Water Company at the general last election: B. Dreyfus, J. P. Zeyn, F. A. Korn, F. Hartung, R. W. Scott. A resolution was introduced and adopted reducing the price of stock to $10 per share.

Thirteen-hundredths of an inch was recorded by Mr. Langenberger as the rainfall for last evening. E. J. P.

A CELEBRATED NAME.

M. Jules Favre as a Fisherman—He is a Great Success.

Last evening's mail brought among other letters to the TIMES one of more than passing interest. Mention was made in these columns a few days since of the capture of a shark in Santa Monica bay nine feet long. An attempt was made to ascertain the name of the captor, but no one seemed to know who he was. The letter, which we take the liberty of publishing, throws some light upon the subject:

SANTA MONICA, April 20, 1883.

Mr. Editor of the Los Angeles Daily Times—DEAR SIR: In to-day's issue of the DAILY TIMES you mention the photographing of a shark which I caught last Tuesday. Will you be so kind as to send me a few papers of the issue in which you spoke of the capture?

I remain yours, respectfully,

J. FAVRE.

I am staying with my wife in this moment at Santa Monica Hotel, taking a rest of a circumnavigation voyage round the world.

Inclosed in the letter was M. Favre's card—Jules Favre, 27 rue de Laval, Paris—and as stated, he, with his wife, are now on a tour around the world. They are taking it leisurely, and have been at Santa Monica about three weeks, where they are very popular.

That Little Church Controversy.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: From an article in your issue of the 17th, entitled "More Questions for the Churches," I formulate as follows, viz:

1. The blessing of God is the pourngout of His holy spirit. This is true.

2. It is not a matter of doubt as to whether we have that blessing here or not. We have not. We have fine churches—some of them free from debt—but we are without the blessing, and, therefore, the sanction of God.

This is assumed, and not true. If the gentleman will attend a few prayer-meetings of the Fort Street Church I will introduce him to twenty heads of families who have been converted the present season, or fifty persons who have been converted in the past two seasons. But the Fort Street Church claims no superiority over any of her sister Churches. Consult the pastors. If conversions with them have not been as numerous, (and we do not say they have not,) it is no indication of a lack of the Divine favor.

The Holy Spirit's outpouring is manifested for the world's conversion, as indirectly in a preparatory work as it is directly in soul conversions. And the seasons of soul saving in my own society have not been in times of financial struggles. I estimate that in the past two years from ninety to one hundred thousand dollars have been expended for church purposes in our city. Where will you find a Protestant community, with our age and limited wealth, more benevolent? I know this community, and a more liberal people I never met.

Thus Churches are bringing their tithes and offerings into God's storehouse, and they are proving God that he may pour out his spirit until there shall not be room enough to receive it.

MORAL.

We welcome the newcomers, be their stay brief or permanent. And may we not ask for modesty in criticism—both in our climate and our Christianity?
